Mr. Su Qing
Chief Executive Officer
Meihodo Inc.
Fukuoka, Japan

Dear Mr. Su:

It is with great pleasure and honor that I forward my best wishes and the best wishes and congratulations of the City and County of San Francisco to you, your colleagues and all of those participating in the Meihodo International Youth Visual Media Festival, which will take place this August in Fukuoka, Japan. We understand this is the second annual Media Festival and has attracted entries from China, Japan and across the globe and will have an outstanding international jury reviewing the innovative projects. We also understand the most outstanding will be presenting their media programs at the Festival.

Our City is proud to be a city of global friendship and one of the great innovation centers of the world. The innovative use of media in our society is a sector that occupies great importance in our city and we salute those who assist in developing and supporting the next generation of brilliant minds in this area.

We forward our best wishes for a very successful, interesting and fun Festival. We again thank all who have worked so diligently to organize this 2nd Annual Festival and thank you for putting your energy into this innovative venture. We also salute the many brilliant young minds who have worked so hard and submitted their projects to the Festival. Everyone participating is a champion in our minds!

Again, our best wishes for a fantastic week in Fukuoka.

Sincerely,
